

Delivering the outcomes your business needs

CBO provides structured project services focused on trust, quality and reliability. We support your organisation across all aspects of Project, Programme and Portfolio Management.

Our Project Services

CBO is different. Whether you know exactly what your business needs but are not sure how to get there, or you need complete support in pinpointing what you want to change, we are your trusted partner for every step of the process. We collaborate in the best possible way. Your objectives are always at the forefront of our mind and paired with our team's impressive range of insider knowledge and experience, we create the best possible solution together. At CBO we work with organisations to ensure the building blocks needed for a successful project are in place, utilising our tried-and-tested methods and offering the very best:

- Trust and transparency - it's imperative you see the monetary value and overall benefits of what we do.
- Forward thinking - futureproof your business and stay efficient in a constant and rapidly changing world.
- Flexibility - whatever size the project, we strive to work within your budget and timeframe, always focused on the task but considering the big picture.
- Diligence - helping you avoid not only the common challenges faced when delivering projects, but also risks that are not always on the radar when you are focused on day-to-day business operations.
- Expert team - getting things right means working with the right people who you know can do the job to your complete satisfaction. are not always on the radar when you are focused on day-to-day business operations.

Let's Work Together

Our trusted, highly qualified team know how to implement projects and wider business change in a structured, controlled manner, step by step. Our approach is aligned with the chartered body for the project profession, the Association of Project Management (AMP), but a true CBO approach goes far beyond this. We go the extra mile, carefully building an understanding of your organisation, its people and its needs. For us, relevant consultant experience, exemplary practice, solid subject knowledge and a willingness to tackle the content is embedded as part of our project service. We don't cut corners or gloss over with short term fixes; we look for real, impactful solutions.

Helping you plan, manage, and deliver successful change

Our Project Services cover all aspects of change, including project, programme and portfolio management, all delivered by our experienced and accredited team.

Project Management

We bring a flexible project management approach that can adapt to an organisation's needs, providing best practice aligned structure with an understanding of the critical elements to enable the embedding of real change.

Portfolio Management

We focus on identifying and prioritising the changes/projects that contribute to an organisation's overall strategic objectives, delivered through a structured and rigorous framework.

Programme Management

We have a track record of enabling organisations to deliver coordinated effort towards achieving a programme's strategic benefits supported by strong governance structures.

Project Health Checks

Using our experienced and knowledgeable team we support clients in reviewing existing projects or recovering struggling ones, focussed on identifying the best project approach for both the business and project.

The close links between our Project, Change Management, Consultancy and Business Analysis services ensures our clients have ready access to wider expertise to meet their project and business needs whatever the industry or sector.

Why CBO Project Services

Our Project Services offering delivers enhanced benefits to clients, including:

Structured governance and reporting

Realistic planning and scheduling

Effective risk and issue
management

Commitment from leadership and teams

We provide a high-quality service to help organisations to deliver successful projects and change by focussing on doing the basics well and support this through an active quality assurance approach, ensuring the project structure and delivery is right for each client.

Client Case Study

Our client, a Private Bank based in the Channel Islands, were looking to digitise their operations through transformation of their technology and working practices. CBO managed the successful definition and embedding of a mature digital change programme, enabling the client to deliver tangible benefits from their digital projects.

CBO has been a longstanding and valued partner, delivering on a number of business and technology projects for our business. In this regard, CBO helped us to kickstart our transformation journey while we were still managing a number of other critical projects. The input and guidance provided by CBO has helped us to the point that we have now been able to embed this programme into our business and start delivering on the various sub-projects that sit under this transformation programme.
